(7)Conference organised by 'Being Presbyterian': "BEING AN OPEN CHURCH" Thursday, October 10th 2019 with Rev Dr Sam Wells - 10am @ Assembly Buildings Belfast; 7:30pm @ First Lisburn Presbyterian Church - see beingpresbyterian.com for details

(8)An Evening of Praise has been arranged for Friday 11th October at 7.00pm at Hamilton Road Presbyterian Church. Those involved are Jonathan Rea, Alan McClure, Bangor Ladies Choir and Donaghadee Male Voice Choir. The evening will be hosted by Lindsay Allen and all proceeds will go to Sunnyside House residents' comfort fund.

(9)International Meeting Point - bicycle appeal. Many needy people have already benefitted from the bicycles donated earlier this year. Some members of the congregation have said that they still have some bicycles that they no longer require. If so they can be delivered to the church hall on Saturday morning, 21st September. Let us know if you have difficulty with delivery and we can try and collect them from your home. The bicycles must be for adults and in reasonable working order. Thank you. Michael Steele (for the mission committee)

Commencing on 2nd October 7.30 – 8.45pm

For all 5 Wednesdays in October.

Over the series of 5 evenings, based on 1 Peter, we will consider what it means for us as Christians to live in the real world. Each evening we will examine various aspects of our Christian lives, including, living with hope, living with one another, living in the world, living with hostility, and living with confidence.

Everyone welcome!
