Please plan to attend this important meeting in the congregation's calendar, when essential business takes place, after which Gillian McCutcheon will be along to play for us on the clarinet. This is always most enjoyable and will be followed by a light supper.

We will be delivering these items to the International Meeting Point this week where they will be a blessing to many in need. The box will remain in the vestibule during February if anyone would still wish to donate. Thank you again for your kindness. Please keep the IMP in your prayers.

Next Sunday: Children's Church is with Jordan Goldie and Caroline Lavery
